Communications about Parish activities

You will understand how important it is for the work of the Parish that we are able to communicate with our congregation and others about our activities.

On 25th May 2018, the new Data Protection Bill will make effective in the UK new EU laws (GDPR) concerning data protection. The new laws mean that from that date the Parish needs your consent to allow us to continue to communicate with you about Parish activities. Once the UK leaves the EU this law will continue to apply.

The new Data Protection law also sets out how organisations must act concerning your personal data held by them. The Parish takes the privacy of data that we hold about you seriously. How the Parish treats your personal data that it holds, your rights under GDPR, and the purposes for which your data is used, are set out in the Privacy Notices (one for Parish role holders and one for non-role holders) that can be found on our website at speldhurst.org/church and posted on the notice boards in St Mary's Speldhurst, St Martin's Ashurst and St John's Groombridge. Information about GDPR can also be found at <https://ico.org.uk/>
